

UCO®145 PURO Hi Wash

Touchless, highly degradable cleaner

Definition

UCO®145 PURO Hi Wash is an ultra-concentrated alkaline exterior vehicle cleaner.

The blend of quality ingredients enables an efficient cleaning process to remove the dynamic and static road film with ease (removal of dirt, insects, bird droppings and grease).

Thanks to its efficient and highly biodegradable surfactants, UCO®145 requires only a short reaction time to deliver superior cleaning results.

UCO®145 has specific foaming guaranteeing a good coverage of the entire vehicle and a better soaking power of the dirt. Therefore, it is an excellent formulation for self-wash and other automatic carwashes.

Unique corrosion inhibitors make UCO®145 safe to use at recommended dilutions.

UCO®145 improves the overall customer experience by containing a pleasant tropical scent.

Application and dosage

Commercial vehicles, agricultural and construction vehicles, and machinery. Alkali-resistant steel and painted aluminum wheels.

Apply UCO®145 using a spray or foaming device, from bottom to top.

Vehicle cleaning: 0.5 – 2 % or 1/200 - 1/50

Insect removal: 3 %.

Rim cleaning and intensive degreasing: 10 - 15 %.

Allow dilution to soak in, never allow to dry. Clean thoroughly with a high-pressure cleaner.
